

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Nu Omega Research Day 2018

October 26, 2018

at

University of North Carolina Wilmington

We are pleased that you chose to answer the call for abstract submission for the 2018 Nu Omega Research Conference. Faculty, students, and nurse professionals are invited to submit abstracts (guidelines below) describing their research/scholarship, evidence-based, or quality improvement projects.

All abstracts are due October 1, 2018. Notice of acceptance will be by October 15, 2018.

Abstracts may be submitted for either podium (paper) or poster presentations. All original research must be approved by an appropriate Institutional Review Board to be considered for presentation. Registration and attendance at the conference is required for all conference presenters.

Abstract Submission

The Research Committee of the Nu Omega Chapter of STTI invites you to submit an abstract for this research / quality improvement conference which has the intent of sharing research and scholarship on health-related activities. Emphasis will be on projects that reflect innovative approaches to local services, regional transformations, and global leadership.

Abstract Guidelines: Use the following guidelines when developing your abstract. Abstracts not meeting these guidelines will not be reviewed.

1. Include the following sections of the research completed in your 350-word abstract:
 - A. Background/Rationale
 - B. Purpose
 - C. Method(s)
 - D. Results
 - E. Conclusions
 - F. Implications for Practice
2. Abstracts must be in publishable format, single-spaced, in 12 point Times New Roman font, with a one-inch margin all around. Paper must be 8-½ x 11 and white camera-ready paper.
3. A completed Abstract Cover Sheet must accompany all abstracts: Include name(s), address, credentials, title, affiliation, and home and business telephone for all presenters. (see form on the following page)
4. Abstracts must be submitted by email on or before October 1, 2018 to Tammy Arms, DNP, PMHNP-BC, NP-C at armst@uncw.edu
5. Abstracts must be e-mailed as attachments in Microsoft Word or PDF format. Please place “2018 Nu Omega Research Conference Abstract” in the subject line of the email.
